Comparing Decimals

1. Numbers with more digits after the decimal point are always larger than numbers with fewer digits after the decimal point.

a. True
b. False

2. Which decimal is larger, 0.889 or 0.98?

a. 0.889
b. 0.98

3. Why is 0.75 larger than 0.659?

a. The number in the tens place is larger
b. There are less numbers
c. The number in the tenths place is larger.