Video: Ready for Take Off Sequence Nonfiction Text Structure (timeline)

Sam found a terrific poster in her new magazine, but will it satisfy Josh's appetite for information about hummingbirds? Join the Knowledge Seekers at the restaurant as they THINK ALOUD and learn how authors use Sequence text structure to put events in order; specifically in a timeline.

In this video, you will learn to:

- think about sequencing events, specifically timeline
- identify signal words
- create graphic organizers
