Video: Reptile Reunion Compare-Contrast Nonfiction Text Structure (part-part)

Sam and Paige continue their tour of the Reptile Relatives exhibit. It is so large and there is so much to discover! Will Sam get to hold a live alligator? Join the Knowledge Seekers as they THINK ALOUD and learn how authors use Compare-Contrast text structure to show how two things are alike or different; specifically part-part.

In this video, you will learn to:

- think about comparing and contrasting; specifically part-part situations
- identify signal words
- create graphic organizers
